Summer is officially here and it's heating up in Twentynine Palms. Beat the heat this summer by stocking up on great reads, the latest movies, and bingeable TV shows. Did you know at the 29 Palms Library you can check out up to 20 DVDs or 50 books at a time? You can also renew your items up to 9 times simply by going on our website or giving us a call here at the branch. Skip the trip and renew your items from the comfort of your home. While you're here check out some books recommended by other patrons of the Twentynine Palms Branch Library.

Midnight at the Bookstore by Matthew Sullivan- "Thrilling crime drama. Kept me guessing until the end."

The Confession by Charles Todd- "Ian Rutledge mysteries are always complex and satisfying. The insight into the world immediately after WWI is like looking into an alien world."

Delish by Joanna Salts- "Amazing and mouth-watering easy recipes. Loved it"

Have you heard about Beanstack? A library mobile app to help with your Summer reading and school year reading.

You may already know kids love the Summer Reading Program for the crafts, performances, and reading rewards. But did you know that adults can join the Summer Reading Program as well? Each week once you have completed the book of your choice, fill out a bookmark review, then return it to the Library and collect your reward. You can collect one reward every week now through August 3rd. Along with earning your reward, each bookmark you turn in is entered into an opportunity drawing for the chance to win a gift basket full of wares from local businesses and artisans. Enjoy local honey, coffee, candles and other delightful items. Stop by the Twentynine Palms Library today to sign up for the Summer Reading Program and you'll get a complementary re-useable bag.
